Savannah Patent Tote Grey, Dual Tone Gigis Stray/Navy & Navy/Tan

Aurora London

Our timeless, luxurious designs have been given a fresh twist for Spring - soft pastel hues with some pops of highlighter colours, and fun details like reversible, detachable straps, all in our sumptuous Spanish & Italian leathers.

Designed in London, by founders Sarah Auerbach & Devina DiCarlo, each piece is made in the same artisanal, generations-old factory in Ubrique Cadiz, southern Spain, favoured by leading luxury brands.

A sleek, timeless silhouette, attention to detail, luxurious materials and quality craftsmanship are at the heart of the brand DNA. Aurora London specialises in small-medium, cross-body designs in gorgeous colours – diligently seeking out the exact shades of leather they require. Each bag has a signature lining and is discreetly, yet proudly, branded inside and out.

Luxurious, Affordable. No Compromise.
